

LIVING AND NON-LIVING

P2: QUIZ

- _____ things are lifeless objects that do not possess life.
 - Living
 - Non-living
- Non-living things cannot travel from one place to another without the help of an external force.
 - True
 - False
- Non-living things require nutrition.
 - True
 - False
- Non-living things do not reproduce offspring, and there is no process of reproduction involved in their life cycle.
 - True
 - False
- Mountains, hills, rivers, seas and oceans are examples of _____.
 - Natural non-living things
 - Man-made non-living things
- Blender, refrigerator, oven, chairs, benches, doors, sofa, table, cot, clothes and dresses are _____.
 - Natural non-living things
 - Man-made non-living things
- Essential things in life, namely breathing, reproduction, respiration, and movement, are all absent in non-living things.

- True
- False

ANSWERS

1. B. non-living
2. True
3. False
4. True
5. A. natural non-living things
6. B. man-made non-living things
7. True

