

HABITAT

P2: QUIZ

1. Ponds are small, shallow, freshwater habitats that provide a home to many plants and animals.
 - True
 - False
2. Animals that live around the pond make it their habitat because it is their prime source for _____ and _____.
3. The example for the animals that live in the marsh zone or the ponds edge is _____.
4. Floating plants should not cover the entire surface of the pond because the submerged plants will not _____.
5. Fully submerged plants that live in ponds provide _____ to the pond so they are essential to the health of fish.
6. Examples for birds that dive for fish or eat pond plants and insects are _____.
7. A single drop of pond water can contain more than a million microscopic organisms.
 - True
 - False
8. Match the following organisms to the places they live in ponds:
 - i. Surface of water
 - ii. Mid water
 - iii. Pond margins
 - a. frogs and crabs
 - b. pond skater and dragon fly
 - c. fish, leech and mosquito larvae

ANSWERS

1. True
2. Food and water
3. Frogs
4. Not be able to live
5. Oxygen
6. Ducks, kingfisher, herons etc
7. True
8. i-b, ii-a, iii-c

