

SEPARATION OF SUBSTANCES

P1: Quiz

1. Separation of substances can be done for the following purposes.

- (i) To remove an undesirable thing
- (ii) To obtain a desirable component
- (iii) To obtain a useful component
- (iv) To obtain a pure component

(v) All the above

2. Separating or dividing one thing from another is called _____.

3. The ground that you stand on and the air that you breathe are _____ mixtures.

a. natural

b. man made

4. Lemon water and tea are examples for _____ mixtures.

a. natural

b. man made

5. _____ can be used to separate iron nails and pins from grains, sand etc.

6. The separation method depends upon the nature of the _____ present in the mixture.

ANSWERS

1. V) All the above
2. Separation
3. A. natural
4. B. man made
5. Magnets
6. Substances

