

Question and Answer

Q1. Was the King wise?

A. No, the King was not wise.

Q2. What would have happened if the old minister had told the King truth?

A. If The old minister would have got punishment if he had told the truth to the King.

Q3. Why did every one pretend that they could see the cloth?

A. Every one pretended that they could see the cloth because the weavers had said that fools could not see their cloth and so they did not want to be considered fools.