

Introduction:

The Town Mouse And The country Mouse is a fable. A fable is a traditional story that teaches us a moral lesson, especially with animal characters. The Town Mouse And the Country Mouse is one of the famous Aesop's Fables.

This story is about two cousin mouse. One lives in the town and the other in the countryside. The country mouse lives a peaceful life in the country in a cosy mouse hole. Whereas, the town mouse lives in the town in a kitchen cupboard where he has to struggle hard for his life whenever someone opens the kitchen cupboard. It is when both of them visits each other's place, that they understood the difference between the places they live in and reminds them of their home.