

The Town Child

Summary:

The poem The Town Child is about a town child who wishes to live in a countryside. The town child here describes about the town he lives in. He says about the busy street of town full of buses, motors, trams etc. He speaks about the street full of smoke, pollution, houses etc. He doesn't like the noises of the town. The town child, apart from living in the town with full of amenities, he wished to live in the meadows. He wishes to have woods around him instead of all the noises, huge buildings, traffic etc. He is tired of the chaos of the town life. And thus, he longed to have a country life. He wanted peace. He loved only thing, that is, the blue sky far above where he would have a peaceful room for himself.
