

IT'S CHANGE....

Questions and Answers:

1. Who is the speaker of this poem?

Guess her age. Support your answer.

Answer: A little school girl is the speaker of this poem.

The speaker's age can be around nine to ten years. We can say this as we can see in the poem she doesn't want to go to the school and is doubted her teacher to make her study lot.

2. What is the speaker's concern?

Answer: The speaker's concern is about the great change in the world which ultimately would add up to the syllabus and she would have to study too much.

3. What is the speaker's concern?

Which line in the poem shows it?

Answer: The speaker's concern is about the great change in the world which ultimately would add up to the syllabus and she would have to study too much.

The thirteenth line shows the speaker's concern.

4. What does an archaeologist do?

Answer: An archaeologist studies human history and pre-history through the excavation of sites. They spend much more of their time in the laboratory analysing artefacts and data than they do in the field. Archaeologists analyse artefacts features and other information recovered in the field to help answer their research questions.
