

Questions And Answers:

1. What are the different constructions planned by civil engineers?

Answer: Civil engineers involves designs, constructions and management of infrastructure, highways, railways, airports, harbours, bridges, tunnels etc.

2. Is the title suitable to the essay? Justify your answer.

Answer: Yes, the title is suitable to the essay.

It can be rightly said that almost every major project has a contribution from a civil engineer. The engineers develops designs, construction, manages infrastructure, highways, railways, airports, harbours, bridges, tunnels, etc. The infrastructure of a nation states about its development. And civil engineers are the one who are behind the infrastructures. The civil engineers are multifaceted, taking on roles and responsibilities that are varied.

3. How do civil engineers guide the clients?

Answer: The civil engineers stay with the clients and guide them through the approval and construction process while offering strategy, advice and their experience.

