A. Reading

Tenali Raman was a poet and jester in the court of King Krishnadevaraya of Vijayanagar. He was famous for his wit and intelligence. This interesting play provides an example of his wit. Read the drama and answer the questions that follow.

Characters:

- Raja Krishnadevaraya: King of Vijayanagar
Tenali Raman: Poet and jester in the court
1st courtier
2nd courtier
3rd courtier
4th courtier

SCENE 1

One day, Raja Krishnadevaraya and his courtiers watch as an artist shows his paintings to the king. The king and most of his courtiers are impressed with the paintings. However, one of the courtiers, Tenali Raman, looks displeased.

Raja : That is really a beautiful painting. I can almost feel the peace of the village scene. You are a very talented artist. Here is a bag of gold for you. We shall be very pleased if you can stay on at our court and make more beautiful paintings like these.

Artist : Your Highness is very kind. It will be an honour to paint for Your Majesty.

Tenali : I do not think they are such good paintings at all!

Raja : How can you say that? I think they are perfectly lovely.

Tenali : For one thing, where is the other side of these two men? You can only see their one side. For another, where is the face of that cow?

Raja : What an ignorant fool you are! Everything cannot be painted. You must imagine the bits that are missing.

Tenali : I bet I can paint better than that. Well, I could if I had the paints.

- Raja : I bet a bag of gold that you can't. I'll give you the paints and the paper. You may also take leave from the court for a month. If at the end of the month you bring me a painting that is half as good as the ones we saw today, I promise you a bag of gold and the title 'King of Artists!'
- Tenali : I agree. After a month, I will show you a better painting than that one.

(The courtiers start smiling thinking that he would lose the bet. They know Tenali Raman cannot paint at all. Tenali looks at the giggling courtiers angrily and walks out.)

- 1st Courtier : You have really caught him out, Sir. He thinks he's the smartest person in the world.
- 2nd Courtier : He has really painted himself into a corner. I'd like to see him get out of that one.
- Raja : I wouldn't be too certain of that. He really is very clever.

SCENE 2

(A month is over. The courtiers are waiting eagerly for Tenali to bring in his painting. They are smiling and whispering to each other.)

- Raja : So, what do we do today?
- 1st Courtier : Sir, the day has arrived when Tenali Raman shows you his painting.
- Raja : Where's he? It's late and almost time for my lunch.
- 2nd Courtier : Perhaps he's so busy with his painting that he has lost track of the days.
- 3rd Courtier : Perhaps his painting is so good that he can't bear to part with it.
- Raja : Well, I can't wait anymore. Somebody should go to his house and tell him that he has lost his bet and the bag of gold.
- 4th Courtier : It's only fair that if he doesn't make good his boast, he should pay a penalty. I feel he should pay the court a bag of gold.
- 1st Courtier : Indeed, yes. I agree, Sir, that he should.
- 3rd Courtier : Ah, there he is. He seems to have brought it. But it is covered with cloth.

(Tenali comes in with two men carrying a painting covered with a sheet of cloth. When Tenali gestures, the men lift the cloth to display an empty canvas. The painting has only a few curved strokes of black on the right-hand edge and a few lines of green at the bottom below it.)

- Tenali : Good afternoon, Sir. See what a beautiful horse I have drawn. It's a magnificent black stallion with a white star on its forehead. Look at the polished leather saddle on it. Hmm, I wonder if I should have the reins trail like that.

- Raja : What's this? I cannot see a horse! This is very insulting. You're trying to make a fool of me. There's nothing on this canvas.
- Tenali : Well, you were the one who told me that we had to use our imagination when we looked at paintings. Imagine that the rest of the horse is just outside the canvas grazing at some lush green grass. Look, you can see the edge of its tail in that corner.
- Raja : You old rascal, you have got the better of me. Minister, where is that bag of gold? Give it to Tenali Raman, the cleverest man in my kingdom!

II. Phrasal verbs

A phrasal verb is a phrase which consists of a verb and a preposition or an adverb or both, the meaning of which is different from the meaning of its separate parts.

You have really caught him out, Sir.

Perhaps his painting is so good that he can't bear to part with it.

The words in bold are phrasal words. The phrase 'caught out' means 'showed that somebody does not know much.' The phrase 'part with' means 'to give something to somebody else, especially something that you would prefer to keep.'

1. Consult a dictionary and list other phrasal verbs beginning with 'catch' and 'part'. Write some sentences of your own for each phrasal verb.
2. Read the following passages, circle the phrasal verbs, and guess their meanings. You may choose the meanings from the list given in the box. Write the phrasal verbs and their meanings in your notebook. Write one sentence of your own for each phrasal verb.

managing, investigating, compensated for, avoid or escape, taking care of, notice someone, succeed.

- i. Ramana Rao's house was robbed of. Venkateswara Rao, the inspector of police who was looking into the case released the picture of the suspect and asked the people to look out for him. In a press release, he said that he had some clues and that the robber could not get out of the case.

They are like little devils. God only knows how she would get through this.

III. Idioms

Read the following sentence from the play:

It's only fair that if he doesn't make good his boast...

The underlined phrase is an idiom. What is an idiom? An idiom is a phrase similar to the phrasal verbs you have just learnt. It is difficult to guess the meaning of an idiom by looking at the individual words. Here 'make good' means 'to carry out a promise'. Some other idioms that begin with make are: make merry, make do, make it, make the most of something, make something of yourself, and make like.

Look up these idioms in a dictionary and find out what they mean.

Here are some more idioms. Guess their meanings and use them in your own sentences:

1. once in a blue moon
2. bury the hatchet
3. to make both ends meet
4. to burn the midnight oil

Grammar

I. Short forms

You have already learnt that an apostrophe shows that something belongs to someone or something before it. It has another use. When one or more letters are omitted in a phrase, an apostrophe is put where they have been left out; thus making it a short form of the original word. Short forms are used when we write a conversation, as it was done in the play you read. However, when these elements are used as main verbs, (Kamala is a lawyer.) or used for emphasis (I will do it.), they are not contracted.

Full form	Short form	Full form	Short form cannot	- can't	will not	- won't
we have	- we've	would	- I'd
I am	- I'm	you will	- you'll

1. Pick out some short forms (contracted forms) used in the play and write their full forms in your notebook as shown above.
2. Read the conversation between Sarada and Usha and rewrite it in your notebook using the short forms.

Sarada : What are you going to do after school?

Usha : I will go home and take rest for an hour.

Sarada : Then, when will you cook supper for your children?

Usha : I need not cook today. I have made some Pulihora in the morning. We will eat it for supper too.

Sarada : Forgot to tell you this. I planned a quiz for 6th class children. Are you coming tomorrow?

Usha : I will not. I am taking leave for two days.

Sarada : Why? Are you going somewhere?

Usha : I would love to do that. But my mother-in-law is visiting us tomorrow.

Sarada : Then you will have a hard time, I suppose.

Usha : I do not think so.

II Adverbs of manner

Revision:

Adjectives describe nouns. Eg. Mani is a safe driver.

Adverbs describe verbs. Eg. Mani drives safely.

We can make adverbs from adjectives by adding -ly as shown below:

Adjective	+ ly	=	adverb
safe	+ ly	=	safely
eager	+ ly	=	eagerly

However, you should remember that not all adverbs are not formed in the same way. For example you can't add -ly to the following adjectives: good, fast.

Adverbs of manner tell us the manner in which something happens. They are usually placed after the main verb or after the object.

Look at the following sentences from the play you have read

1. The courtiers are waiting eagerly for Tenali to bring in his painting.
2. Tenali looks at the giggling courtiers angrily and walks out.

In the first sentence the adverb 'eagerly' comes after the main verb 'waiting'.

In the second sentence the adverb 'angrily' comes after the object 'courtiers'.

Complete the following sentences with the correct form of the words in brackets. Tick (✓) the sentences where the adverb of manner is put after the object and put a cross(x) against the sentences where the adverb of manner is put immediately after the main verb.

1. Sriram speaks _____ English. He speaks English _____. (correct)
2. Saleem is a _____ tailor. He makes dresses _____. (careless)
3. You always speak _____. Please speak _____. (loud, quiet)
4. Be _____ and do your homework _____. (careful, correct)
5. Nandu is a _____ reader. He reads books very _____. (slow)
6. Please be _____ or do your work _____. I want to sleep. (quiet)
7. My mother shouted _____ when I showed my progress card.(loud)
8. Please listen _____.(careful)
9. P.T.Usha is a _____ runner. She runs very _____. (fast)
10. Raghavathi is a _____ teacher. She teaches very _____. (good, well)

Study Skills

Jesters used to entertain people with their wit and humour. Now we have comedians in films doing that job. Here is an interesting passage about one such comedian Mr. Rajababu. Read on:

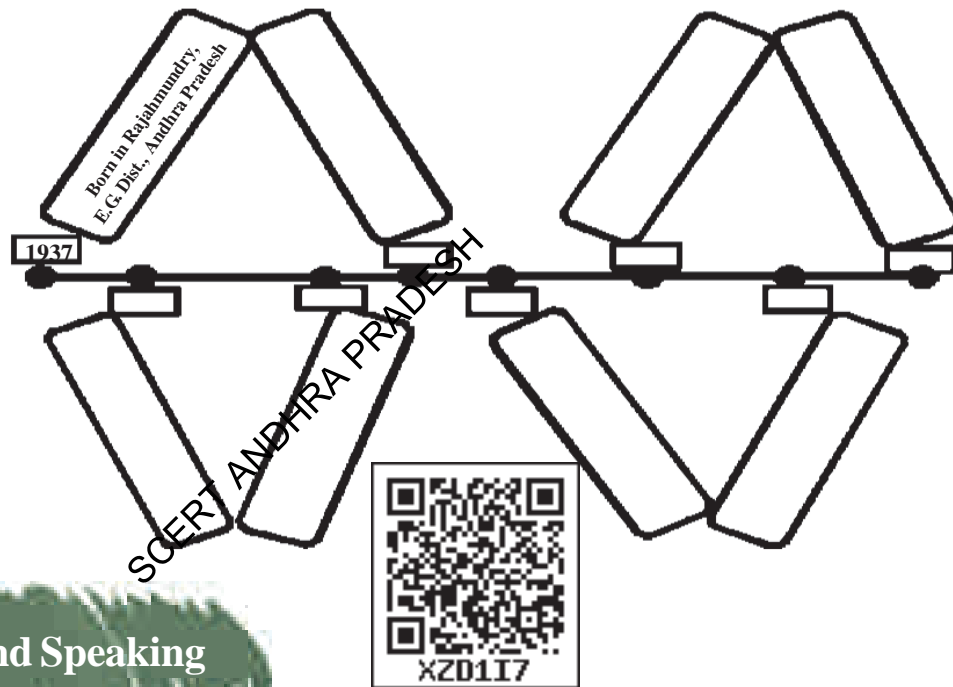

Sri Rajababu was a famous comedian in Tollywood. He was born in Rajahmundry, East Godavari District in Andhra Pradesh on 20 October 1937. He entered Tollywood in 1960 and acted until 1981. In his 21 year film career, he acted in more than 550 movies.

Can you imagine what he was doing before entering the Telugu Film Industry? Believe it or not, he was working as a Telugu teacher! Imagine how much fun his students might have had. Between 1955 and 60 he acted in many dramas. 1960 was a milestone in his life because that was the year in which he had his first chance to act in a film called 'Samajam'. From that time onwards he never looked back. He married Lakshmi Ammalu in 1965. In 70's, he had become a very popular comedian and won many Filmfare Awards. His combination with Ramaprabha was a super hit and they were considered the best comedy pair.

In 1972 he acted as a hero for the first time in the movie 'Tata Manavadu.' He acted as a hero in four more films. He produced films too. In 1974 he produced the film 'Evariki Vare Yamuna Theere'. His film career came to an end in 1981 with the film 'Gadasari Atta Sogasari Kodalu'. He could not act because of his ill health. This wonderful comedian, who was fondly called 'Haasya Nata Chakravarthi' passed away on 7 February, 1983.
